Ruger Mark III and New S&W PPK/S Get New Pachmayr Signature Grips

Pachmayr - a Lyman brand - has introduced a two new Signature Grips. The new models for the Ruger MkIII and the S&W PPK/S deliver all the comfort and control advantages of Pachmayr's popular full wrap-around design and proprietary grip material.

For the ultimate in comfort and control, the Pachmayr Signature grip design for the Ruger MkIII features front strap finger grooves for consistent hold. In addition, the left grip panel is properly relieved for easier access to the magazine release.

For the Smith & Wesson PPK/S, the Signature full-wrap grip style and Pachmayr material provide an unequalled level of security and control to this classic ultra-compact handgun. This new Pachmayr model is designed specifically for the S&W version of this timeless classic as grips for the original models will not fit.
